

STATE OF MARYLAND, DEPARTMENT OF LABOR, LICENSING, AND REGULATION
Division Of Unemployment Insurance

You have applied for Unemployment Insurance Benefits and The Maryland Division of Unemployment Insurance will determine the amount of benefits that you will be eligible to receive if you meet all of the eligibility requirements. You will receive a statement of your monetary eligibility in the mail.

You can find the pamphlet "What You Should Know about Unemployment Insurance in Maryland" on our website. This pamphlet has instructions on how to file weekly claim certifications in order to receive benefits. It is your responsibility to read this pamphlet and comply with all requirements contained in it. Failure to comply with all of these requirements may result in a denial of benefits.

In order to provide benefit payments in a secure and quick manner, the State of Maryland pays unemployment insurance benefits with the Maryland Unemployment Insurance Benefits Debit Card. If you wish to receive your benefit payments by having a paper check mailed to your address instead, please call:

- 410-949-0022 (outside of Maryland or within the Baltimore-metro area);
- Otherwise, call 1-800-827-4839 to request this option.

This Visa® debit card is issued through Bank of America and is valid for three years. There is no activation fee or purchase fee to use the Bank of America Visa® debit card. More information is available by selecting additional disclosures about the debit card.

If you have not previously been issued a Bank of America Visa® debit card, when your first payment has been approved, you will receive a notice explaining the debit card process. Shortly after you receive the notice, you will receive your card in a white envelope with the State of Maryland flag and a Tennessee return address in the upper left-hand corner.

More detailed instruction on using the card, along with an option for direct transfer to your personal bank account, will be included with the card you will receive from Bank of America.

THE LAW PROVIDES FOR FINES OR IMPRISONMENT OR BOTH IN ADDITION TO DISQUALIFICATION AND REPAYMENT OF BENEFITS IF YOU KNOWINGLY FAIL TO DISCLOSE INFORMATION OR GIVE FALSE INFORMATION IN ORDER TO OBTAIN OR INCREASE BENEFITS.

Due to the current COVID-19 state of emergency, you are exempt from the requirement to actively search for work during the first 10-weeks that you receive UI benefits. You may still be selected for a federally-required reemployment workshop with a workforce professional which will take place one-on-one over the phone. The professional will work with you to develop an individualized reemployment plan to be implemented after the state of emergency is lifted. We strongly encourage you to complete any of the reemployment activities which can be done online with MWE at: <https://mwejobs.maryland.gov>. If you are in a union with a hiring hall, you must make regular contact in the manner prescribed by your union.

YOU MUST RECORD YOUR WEEKLY JOB CONTACTS IN THE MWE-REX WORK SEARCH VERIFICATION LOG.

- Include dates of contacts, names and addresses of employers, names and titles of persons contacted, phone numbers of employers contacted, type of work sought, how job contact was made, whether application was taken, and results of contacts.
- Your work search contacts are subject to verification by the Division of Unemployment Insurance.
- You must keep a copy of your work search records for one year after the contacts were made.

YOU MUST BE ABLE AND AVAILABLE FOR WORK

- Even if you are exempt from work search, you must be able to work and available to work full time.
- If you refuse to apply for or accept suitable work Unemployment Insurance benefits may be denied.

YOU MUST REPORT AND RECORD ALL GROSS EARNINGS FOR EACH WEEK THAT YOU WORK IN THE MWE-REX WORK SEARCH VERIFICATION LOG.

- You must report all gross (before any deductions) earnings for any work, including temporary, part-time, and self-employment for the week they are earned (not paid).
- IF YOU DO NOT REPORT THIS INCOME, YOU ARE COMMITTING FRAUD. Penalties could include a year long denial of UI benefits, criminal charges, fines and imprisonment, as well as, repayment of the illegally obtained monies with interest.
- If you are working full time you are not eligible for unemployment benefits regardless of the amount of gross wages that you earn.

IF YOU BECOME SEPARATED FROM ANY EMPLOYMENT WHILE FILING FOR BENEFITS, YOU MUST REPORT THIS IMMEDIATELY BY CONTACTING A CLAIM CENTER BY TELEPHONE.

YOU MUST FILE WEEKLY CLAIM CERTIFICATIONS IN ORDER TO RECEIVE PAYMENT FOR THE WEEKS THAT YOU ARE UNEMPLOYED

- You must file weekly claim certifications for each week that you are requesting payment in order to receive benefits. You may file your weekly claim certifications by Internet (Webcert) or telephone (Telecert).
- You cannot file for a week of benefits until the week ends. All weeks end at midnight on Saturday. Sunday is the first day you can file for the week that has just ended.
- You must file your weekly claim certification any time beginning 12:01 am Sunday to 5:00 pm on Friday. If you do not file your weekly claim certification on time, you may be denied benefits.
- You will receive detailed instructions on filing weekly claim certifications in the pamphlet we mail to you. This pamphlet is also available on our website.

YOU MAY BE CONTACTED BY TELEPHONE TO DISCUSS ANY ISSUES CONCERNING THIS CLAIM.

- You will receive an appointment notice with the specific instructions, date, and time.
- If you do not have a telephone, you must follow the instructions that will be printed on the appointment notice.

By clicking the "SUBMIT THIS CLAIM" button, you certified that you understood that failure to comply with any of these requirements may result in a denial of benefits.
